

Code of Ethics

Thank you for being here and for taking the time to read this valuable information. First and foremost, rest assure that our readings are strictly confidential and everything that comes up in a reading will stay private. It doesn't matter if we know each other, if I know your family and/or your friends. Only YOU can decide if you will share (part of) your reading with others.

My services consist of delivering messages to you with the guidance of the cards. I'll deliver the messages just the way they come, so I can keep the message as honest and transparent as possible. I will not sugar coat the message, but I am always open if you want to discuss something that might have scared you, or if you received a different outcome than the one you were expecting.

I would like you to know that the environment that we create is a safe one, I'm here to listen and NOT to judge, we all have our things that we need to deal with =)

Please note that I only do readings for people who request them directly with me, which means, you must give me your consent to tap into your energy. I don't do third party readings to respect the other persons privacy. Think about a reading like an entry to your diary. You probably wouldn't like to find out or even the thought that someone else might find it and read it, right?

I am not a medical, financial nor legal professional, ergo I can't provide you with any messages in regard to those topics. Please consult a certified specialist for such topics. Also, I currently don't read for minors.

My readings are a guideline and/or advice. It is YOUR responsibility, as a customer, to decide what you take for your life and what don't. It's like if someone would tell you to wear a scarf because its cold out there, and only YOU decide if you will take action or not.

I don't see the future, nor I have a magic crystal ball. Talking about the future can be easily changed or modified by you. You decide if you use the reading as pure amusement or if you take it seriously and to which extend.

If you don't understand it or your reading doesn't resonate with you, I recommend you give it a few weeks' time before you go back to your reading. Maybe after, it will make sense to you. Otherwise please feel free to contact me for any clarification or for an additional reading.
